

Journey to Justice in Tower Hamlets – Opening Event

Human Rights Day, Saturday December 10th 2016 at Rich Mix, 12.00 – 14.00

Dave Rosenberg, compere - local historian, author and radical tour guide.

Diane Alonzo - JtoJ management committee and planning group.

Sing Tower Hamlets – community choir making a joyful noise in the east end! Open to all.

Baroness Helena Kennedy QC - Human Rights Lawyer, Principal of Mansfield College, Oxford, chair of the Booker Prize Foundation and a JtoJ patron.

Kemi - singer songwriter born and raised in East London.

Romford Rebels performing Iron Sky - a dance piece that represents the many people who have rebelled against social injustice and wanted to make a difference to their world.

Roisin Gewirtz O'Reilly - short introduction to her Batmitzvah project for Journey to Justice.

Alexandra Letu – JtoJ Live, George Mitchell School. Dried Flower inspired by Ruby Bridges.

Lemzi - new school old school MC from East London, part of the exclusive collective.

Roger McKenzie - Assistant General Secretary at UNISON.

Grand Union World Choir - brings together singers from across London's cultural communities. Cable Street Remembered written by Tony Haynes for the anniversary of the 'Battle.'

Girlz United - young women from Shadwell, Camberwell and Essex who have worked with JtoJ including Amber Streamer - aspiring young dancer from Essex with a strong passion for equality.

Rushanara Ali MP – Member of Parliament for Bethnal Green and Bow.

Naga MC - Tower Hamlets based rapper, poet, coach and workshop facilitator for SLAMBassadors UK.

Dan Jones - Cable Street resident, antiracist activist and human rights campaigner for Amnesty International. Tower Hamlets 1978, "Blood on the Streets" the killing of Altab Ali and Blair Peach.

Jean Stallings – Member of the International Committee on October 17th Eradication of Poverty Day and ATD 4th World (All Together in Dignity).

Evaluation – Janet Browne, Journey to Justice planning group.

With huge thanks to everyone who has helped us come this far

Exhibition viewing on the Mezzanine Level

Indi-go café and restaurant is open

Inspiring and empowering people to take action for social justice through learning about human rights movements and the arts.

Supported by Tower Hamlets Council

RICH
MIX

LMT
Lipman-Milband

SIGRID RAUSING TRUST

LOTTERY FUNDED

CIVA

U.S. Embassy London

