

October 23rd 2016

Journey to Justice – Hidden stories of Sunderland Launch event

Sunderland Museum & Winter Gardens, Burdon Road, Sunderland

- 1.30pm Networking and refreshments University of Sunderland Choir
- 2.00pm Welcome by Jackie Nixon, Chair of Sunderland Journey to Justice
- 2.05pm Setting the scene Revd. Chris Howson Chaplain, University of Sunderland and Dr. Rick Bowler Senior Lecturer, Community and Youth Work Studies, University of Sunderland, 'Stories of Sunderland to inspire our common future'
- 2.20pm Key note speaker Director of Education Simon Marshall, Sunderland City Council
- 2.30pm Friends of Drop In (FODI) video, Dorothy Ismail and Abraham Eiluorior
- 2.40pm Gender and Social Justice Claire Phillipson, Director, Wearside Women in Need
- 2.50pm Education and Social Justice Dr Kim Gilligan, Principal Lecturer in Learning and Teaching and Chair of Equality and Diversity for Faculty of Education and Society, University of Sunderland
- 3.00pm Closing remarks Carrie Supple, Director, Journey to Justice and Lindsey Mullan Sunderland JtoJ Coordinator
- 3.10pm Performance Gemma Hackett School of Dance
- 3.25pm Ribbon cutting and private viewing Opens exhibition in the Pottery Gallery – Women of the World (WOW) group

With huge thanks to everyone who has helped us come this far

The Sunderland JtoJ steering group, our volunteers, partners and funders, the JtoJ management committee and all who donated to our Just Giving page

With huge thanks to our funders and supporters

CIVA

SIGRID RAUSING TRUST

LMT
Lisman-Milbrandt

We inspire and empower people to take action for social justice through learning about human rights movements and the arts