Journey to Justice Newham Music and Freedom Project March and April 2018

An opportunity to volunteer for a human rights exhibition in Beckton

Our mission is to galvanise people to take action for social justice through learning from human rights movements and the arts. Our multi-media interactive travelling exhibition links powerful but little known human stories from the US civil rights movement and struggles for justice in the UK. The exhibition has a strong focus on Newham stories, exploring what can make action for social justice succeed. There will be linked activities and workshops at various Newham venues.

It will be at Beckton Globe Library (DLR Beckton) throughout March and April 2018.

We need volunteers to be on duty at the exhibition and events in order to:

- welcome visitors
- answer questions - but we do not expect you to know everything!
- gather feedback from visitors

We ask all volunteers to help out on at least two half days between March 5th and April 30th from 10.30am - 7.30 pm with optional attendance at other daytime or evening events.

Contact for an application form: musicandfreedom@journeytojustice.org.uk or 07711199198. Apply by February 15th.

Interviews will be held between February 5th and 20th. There will be a briefing session to help prepare you on Fri. March 2nd - times to be confirmed.
