

Cumbria Journey to Justice Taster

November 29th 2019 5-8 pm

People First Conference Centre

5.00 Arrive, register, refreshments

5.10 Welcome, housekeeping and introductions

5.15 Warm up activity

5.30 Why bring the Journey to Justice exhibition programme to Cumbria?

5.40 Introduction to JtoJ - aims, mission, our approach, short film

6.00 JtoJ activity

6.20 Less told stories of local people's involvement in human rights/social justice movements

6.40 Examples of local groups' JtoJ exhibition programmes in the country since 2015

6.50 Break

7.00 Discussion, what's involved in bringing JtoJ to Cumbria? Use Start Up Guide developed by JtoJ for you. Timing, partners, funding, programme, histories, schools, volunteers, PR, steering group etc.

- An opportunity for local stories that link to the Journey to Justice exhibition and its themes of the US Civil Rights movement and action for social justice & human rights.
- Identify potential audiences and projects that link to these local stories & JtoJ's mission.
- Develop groups of stakeholders who will support the development and delivery of the Journey to Justice exhibition and projects and identify what they can do.
- Create steering group, agree timetable - we talked about June 2020 at the Old Fire Station.

7.45 Agree next steps, evaluation

8.00 Close