

Islington

...is coming!

Journey to Justice is coming to Resource for London Islington in April and May 2019.

We will tell the less known stories of Islington residents' struggle for civil rights and social justice.

Journey to Justice will celebrate Islington's human rights history and encourage people to get involved in today's campaigns

To find out more or to volunteer email: mike@resourceforlondon.org

Press Event Thursday 18th April from 5 p.m. at 356 Holloway Rd, London N7 6PA

Numbers are limited. Register now to attend at eventbrite

Partners include Ringcross Community Centre, Islington People's Rights, ROTA (Race On the Agenda), CANDI (City and Islington College), London Metropolitan University, Islington Museum and Islington Anti Apartheid

The National Welfare Rights Organization marching to end hunger as part of the Poor People's Campaign, 1968.
Jack Rottier photograph collection, George Mason University Libraries.